THREE FARMERS NAMED PRESENTING SPONSOR OF 'CURLING DAY IN SASKATCHEWAN'

CURLSASK, the collective voice for curling in Saskatchewan, and Three Farmers, Saskatchewan based company that creates sustainable and healthy food products are pleased to announce a new partnership. Three Farmers will become the first ever sponsor of Provincial Day of Curling. The 3rd annual Provincial Day of Curling presented by Three Farmers will take place January 31st.

Executive Director, Ashley Howard states “CURLSASK is proud of our relationships with all of our existing sponsors and are looking forward bringing Provincial Day of Curling to a new level with the support of Three Farmers. There is no doubt that curling and the agricultural community is intertwined in the fabric of Saskatchewan and we are confident this new partnership will be an asset to both our organizations.”

Three Farmers connect Saskatchewan farmers to consumers by bringing their quality products to the marketplace and tracing each bottle or bag directly back to the field and farmer who produced it. They are committed to sustainable, traceable agriculture and are proud to be part of value – added agriculture in the prairies.

“We are extremely excited to be partnering with CURLSASK and are privileged to be the naming sponsor of the 2017-2018 Provincial Day of Curling, said CEO/Owner, Natasha Vandenhurk. “The Three Farmers brand of culinary oils and roasted snacks was born in Saskatchewan and we continue to grow and manufacture all of our products within the provincial borders. Supporting and creating opportunities within our communities is a goal we share with CURLSASK and we look forward to making that happen this coming season.”
